Party and Alcohol Consumption Policy

Thank you for choosing to stay with Abode Hotels.

Abode Hotels has a zero tolerance policy on parties being held on the premises. Please read and acknowledge the following terms and conditions which are applicable for the duration of your stay with us.

A party is defined as:

- Any situation where the number of guests within a guest room exceeds the room type's maximum advised upon making the reservation
- Any situation where the noise level from a guest room disturbs other guests
- Any situation whereby excessive traffic to/from a guest room is identified
- Any situation where it is deemed that intoxication is occurring
- Any situation where it is identified that excessive alcohol or noise is present
- Any situation deemed as a potential safety threat to others

In the event that any guest room is identified as hosting a party, Abode Hotels reserves the right to immediately request all occupants of the guest room up to, and including, the guest who has registered for the guest room to vacate the premises. Failure to comply with this request may result in further police action being taken against the person/s in question.

In the event that an eviction does occur, the registered guest will be charged for that night's accommodation and for any expense resulting from additional cleaning of the hotel guest room, replacement of any furniture/fixture/fitting breakage, as well as for any required repairs.

The registered guest and their visitors will not be able to make future reservations with Abode Hotels.

We appreciate your cooperation.
